Jane Roberts

Co-Founder

Jane Roberts and Lois Abraham established 34 Million Friends of UNFPA in response to the U.S. government's announcement that it would withhold the $34 million Congress had allocated to UNFPA.

UNFPA works to eliminate gender-based violence including female genital cutting and rape as weapons of war.

UNFPA helps the most vulnerable women worldwide plan their families, give birth safely and protect themselves from AIDS. It works toward equal access to food, education and healthcare.
