I was able to negotiate a deal with the owner and for $7 a person, you will get, a choice of falafel, chicken kabob, chicken shawerma, beef shawerma, a vegetarian platter or a combination of all of the above. That's not all. You will also get a hummus or baba-ghannouj appetizer and a drink. That is all for a very inexpensive price of $7 a person. Simo, the owner, is very excited to host YPIC. He isn't quite 40 yet, so he is seriously considering joining our organization.

The agenda is going to be open for the meeting after we discuss the role of YPIC for the Darfur walk coming up this fall. Bring friends, everyone is welcome. The more the better. Please RSVP to rerwin@unachicago.org.

Thank you!

See you on the 30th.
